1. Introduction

Global tax governance

“Global tax governance [...] consists of the set of institutions governing issues of taxation that involve cross-border transactions or have other international implications.”

(Dietsch & Rixen, 2016)

Current model

- Double tax treaties
- OECD
- BEPS
- UN? Other actors?

2. OECD BEPS Project

Description & Objectives

International framework to combat tax avoidance by multinational enterprises ("MNEs") using base erosion and profit shifting tools.

Objectives:

- Close tax loopholes
- Increase revenue after economic crisis
- Consolidate hegemony of OECD

2. OECD BEPS Project

Minimum standards

Inclusive framework includes non-OECD countries.

Members of the IF commit to these measures:

- Action 5: Harmful Tax Practices
- Action 6: Treaty Abuse
- Action 13: Transfer Pricing Documentation
- Action 14: Dispute Resolution

3. Legal transplant

- Importing foreign institutions to produce social change
- Influence of
 - political system
 - legal system
 - geography
 - structure of economy
 - culture

3. Legal transplants – some hypotheses

- Difference between countries
 - Structure of economy (FDI recipient or exporting, FDI intensity, MNE headquarters, importance of sectors)
 - Level of development
 - Political system (influence of parliament and interest groups) Genschel/Seelkopf 2016
- Differences within countries

4. GLOBTAXGOV research plan

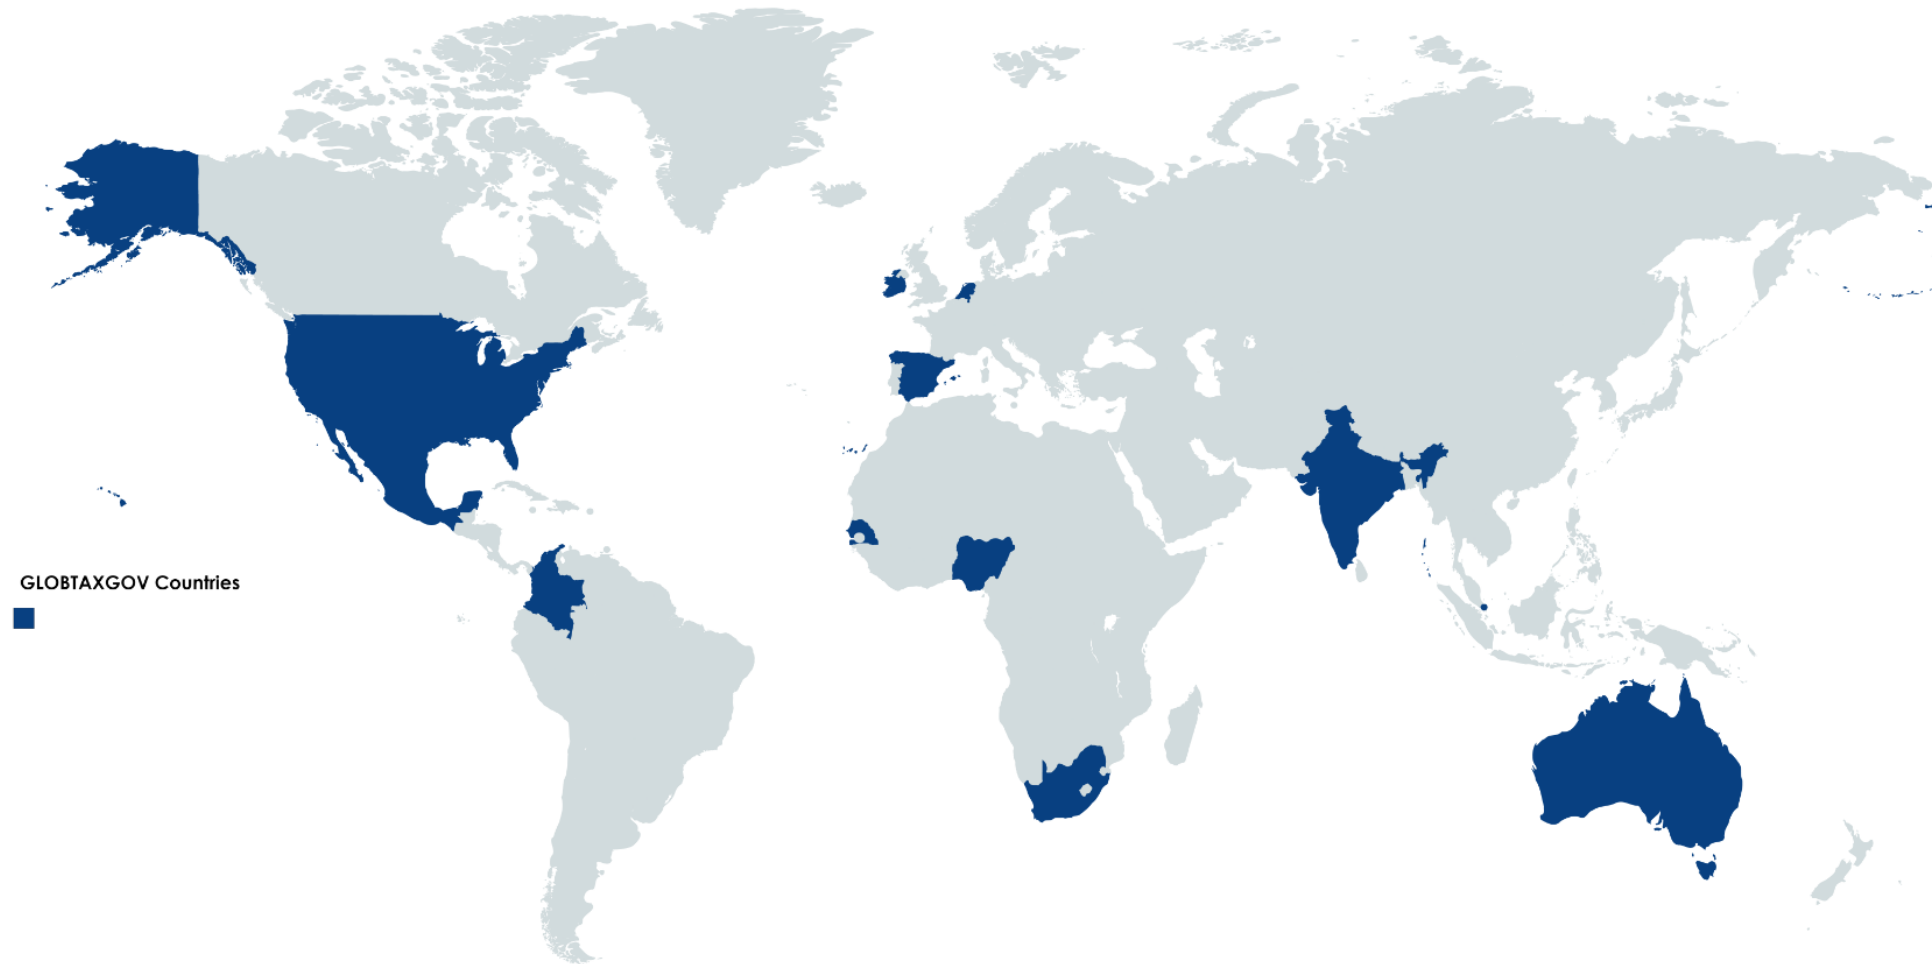

Assessment of the current global tax governance model

3 Sub-questions:

- Why are these countries participating in the BEPS Project?
- How will the BEPS minimum standards be transplanted into the tax system of these countries?
- How can the differences in tax systems and tax cultures of these countries influence the content of these minimum standards?

4. GLOBTAXGOV research plan

Countries to analyze

4. GLOBTAXGOV research plan

Criteria for choosing these countries:

1. Location
2. Legal system
3. Economy
4. BEPS commitment
5. Membership

4. GLOBTAXGOV research plan

Work plan:

1. Desk research (legal transplants, country particularities)
2. Interviews (tax professionals, tax authorities, scholars, etc.)
3. Surveys
4. Workshops
