

GLOBTAXGOV

A NEW MODEL OF GLOBAL GOVERNANCE IN INTERNATIONAL TAX LAW MAKING

GLOBTAXGOV Update - November 2021

This is the second edition of the GLOBTAXGOV newsletter. You can also read this newsletter and previous newsletters online under this link.

The 3rd edition of the Global Tax Symposium: 8-9 December

- Registrations are open for the 3rd edition of the Global Tax Symposium, which takes place on December 8 and 9 in a virtual format. The Global Tax Symposium is an initiative supported by 22 universities from around the world to provide a platform for innovative research and foster dialogue between different tax policy stakeholders. This year, the GLOBTAXGOV Project at Leiden University proudly hosts the two day event. Consult the full program here and register for free here.

Latest Outputs

- Recordings are available from our latest co-organized event! Early September, GLOBTAXGOV organized together with the University of St. Gallen a seminar on Sustainability and Tax Reporting, assessing the connections between different tax reporting standards and various dimensions of sustainability. You can re-watch the sessions here.
- GLOBTAXGOV researchers Juliana Cubillos, Frederik Heitmüller and Irma Mosquera contributed a chapter on "Multilateral Cooperation in International Tax Law" to the book "The Future of Multilateralism: Global Cooperation and International Organizations", edited by M. Hosli, T. Garrett, S. Niedecken and N. Verbeek. The book can be ordered here, and the chapter accessed here.
- Juliana Cubillos and Marius von Frankenhorst wrote a summary on the virtual workshop series "Globalization and Digitalization – Interconnections between taxation, trade and investment", which took place last June. For the summary, follow this link. If you would like to watch back some of the sessions, check out our YouTube channel.

You can find a complete list of our outputs (articles, papers, etc.) here.

Other upcoming Events

GLOBTAXGOV researchers will speak at several events in the coming weeks (some closed to the public). For a complete list of our upcoming events, as well as reports on past ones, please visit our calendar.

- Among others, Irma Mosquera will give a presentation at the Spiegel Sohmer Tax Policy Colloquium at McGill University on 17 November at 11.30 EST / 17.30 CET. Info and registration here.

For those readers who are currently pursuing a PhD trajectory, there are a few interesting events coming up:

- The next sessions of the Vienna/Leiden/Stockholm/Uppsala doctoral seminar series take place in 2022. More info here. Registering for the seminar at WU Vienna is currently open here (until 30 November).
- The IBFD Doctoral Meeting of Researchers in International Taxation \(DocMIT\) and Postdoctoral International Tax Forum \(PITF\) will take place on 31 January and 1 February 2022

Read the latest from the GLOBTAXGOV blog

- In "The time it takes to update tax treaties", Mees Vergouwen and Dirk Broekhuijsen investigate empirically how long OECD member countries take to update their bilateral tax treaties

Please visit our Blog to see further contributions. If you would like to become a contributor, please send us an email with your proposal and personal details. Please find our guidelines for authoring a blog here. We would love to welcome you to the discussion!

About us

GLOBTAXGOV - A New Model of Global Governance in International Tax Law Making is a research project aiming to assess the feasibility and legitimacy of the current model of global tax governance and the role of the OECD and the EU in international tax law making. The project is funded by the EU H2020 ERC Research & Innovation Program.
