A NEW MODEL OF GLOBAL GOVERNANCE IN INTERNATIONAL TAX LAW MAKING

GLOBTAXGOV Update – August 2022

This is the sixth edition of the new GLOBTAXGOV newsletter. This and previous newsletters can also be found online here.

Webinar in collaboration with CIAT and University of Curacao on Toolkit for the Design and Effective Implementation of General Anti-Avoidance Rules (GAAR)

- On 25 August, from 9.00 to 10.30 am Panama time (16.00 to 17.30 CEST), we will present the Toolkit on General Anti-Avoidance Rules, developed by GLOBTAXGOV and CIAT, with financial support from GIZ and Eurosocial+, in an online webinar. More information on the event is available here and you can register free of charge here. The toolkit is available here.

Seminar on "The Global Minimum Tax and its effects on countries' tax regimes"

- On 23 September, GLOBTAXGOV organizes a seminar on the Global Minimum Tax and its impact on the tax regimes of different country groups, with presentations by Kerrie Sadiq (University of Queensland), Rick Krever (University of Western Australia) and Frederik Heitmüller (GLOBTAXGOV). The seminar will be hybrid, taking place online and physically at Leiden University from 14.00 to 16.00 Central European Summer Time. More info is available here and registrations are open here.

Call for abstracts: Research colloquium on global tax governance

- We are looking forward to receiving abstracts for the fourth season of our multidisciplinary research colloquium on global tax governance, co-organized by GLOBTAXGOV and Martin Hearson at ICTD, to discuss early-stage original research on global tax governance. Find the call for abstracts (open until 31st of August) here. The program will be communicated in September.

Global Tax Symposium

- This year, the Global Tax Symposium is hosted by NIPFP, New Delhi, and will take place online on December 1 and 2. More information is available here.
- From 19 – 20 September, the PhD Global Tax Symposium takes place at McGill University, Canada. More info here.

Special issue on “Public International Law, International Taxation and Tax Dispute Resolution” out in Asia Pacific Law Review

- The contributions of this special issue, which was edited by Irma Mosquera and Julien Chaisse, were first discussed during the seminar series on Globalization and Digitalization: Interconnections between Taxation, Trade and Investment, which took place last summer. The articles can be downloaded here.

Watch back the session on Tax Governance and Justice in Europe and beyond at ESOF 2022
