

GLOBTAXGOV

A NEW MODEL OF GLOBAL GOVERNANCE IN INTERNATIONAL TAX LAW MAKING

GLOBTAXGOV Update – November 2023

This is the 9th edition of the new GLOBTAXGOV newsletter. This and previous newsletters can also be found online here.

Hybrid conference: Global Tax Symposium 2023 on 4 and 5 December

- The Global Tax Symposium 2023 takes place online and in São Paulo. Like in previous years it features panels focused on innovative research papers and debates on contemporary issues. Info on program and registration available here.

Registration open for EUTAXGOV postgraduate online training on “The EU’s Global Regulatory Power and the EU Standard of Tax Good Governance” in May/June 2024

- During five days (every Friday from 17 May to 14 June 2024), we will explore the European Union's regulatory power in shaping tax policy around the world. On 19 of June 2024 the training will be concluded with a hybrid seminar. The postgraduate online training has an academic character but also includes interactive discussions among participants on the content of the course, and the training of skills. It is open to tax, trade, investment government officials and researchers of Asian, African and Latin American and Caribbean countries and to policymakers working at regional institutions in the Global South. Modules are delivered by Prof. Irma Mosquera and Frederik Heitmüller, as well as guest lecturers from different backgrounds (policymaker, government official, regional organization representative, etc.). More information is available here. Register here.

Watch back the recording of our online roundtable “UN vs. OECD – Quo Vadis International Tax Governance?”

- On 23 November, GLOBTAXGOV organized together with University of St. Gallen an online roundtable on the way forward in the current debate regarding the United Nation's role in global tax governance. You can watch back the recording of the roundtable here.

The latest from the GLOBTAXGOV blog

- In “Are we arriving on time? An analysis of issues related to the taxation of the metaverse” Antoni Bergas Forteza explores whether current international tax rules and different reform proposal adequately capture new business models focused on the metaverse.
- In Plea for a Meta Regime! \(and why the UN should be the governing body\) Peter Hongler discusses the potential structure of a framework convention to be developed under the auspices of the UN.

- In "Developing a unified approach on "inclusive and effective tax cooperation": A way towards strengthening the role of the UN? Ezgi Arik analyses the UN Secretary General's report and makes recommendations for strengthening the UN's role in global tax governance.

Please visit our Blog to see further contributions. If you would like to become a contributor, please send us an email with your proposal and personal details. Please find our guidelines for authoring a blog here. We would love to welcome you to the discussion!

About us

GLOBTAXGOV - A New Model of Global Governance in International Tax Law Making is a research project aiming to assess the feasibility and legitimacy of the current model of global tax governance and the role of the OECD and the EU in international tax law making. The project is funded by the EU H2020 ERC Research & Innovation Program.

Twitter YouTube Website

You received this message, because you subscribed to our newsletter. If you no longer want to receive GLOBTAXGOV Updates, please reply to this email with "unsubscribe". You can re-subscribe via this link.