

Universiteit
Leiden
The Netherlands

ASIAN DEVELOPMENT BANK

GLOBTAXGOV

A NEW MODEL OF GLOBAL GOVERNANCE IN INTERNATIONAL TAX LAW MAKING

Revisiting EU competitiveness in Asia in particular ADB Member Countries

Preliminary Workshop 16 November 2026 Online

SHORT BIO SPEAKERS

Danuše Nerudová Member of the European Parliament (MEP) Group of the European People's Party (Christian Democrats), economist, and former rector of Mendel University in Brno. She rose to national prominence through her work on pension reform and her candidacy in the 2023 Czech presidential election, where she placed third with strong support from young voters. Her academic focus is on European tax policy and sustainable public finances. In the European Parliament, she serves on the Committee on Budgets (BUDG) and the Subcommittee on Tax Matters (FISC), and is Vice-Chair of the Delegation for Relations with the Korean Peninsula. She is also involved in the Committees on Economic and Monetary Affairs (ECON) and Environment, Public Health and Food Safety (ENVI) as a substitute member.

Satya Srinivas is currently Executive Director of the Asian Development Bank (ADB), bringing more than three decades of distinguished public service and leadership in international trade, customs administration, and economic policy. Prior to joining ADB, he served as Special Secretary in India's Department of Commerce, overseeing the Europe Division, Special Economic Zones, Plantation Boards, and trade intelligence and statistics. He was Chief Negotiator for the India-EU negotiations, he also successfully led negotiations for the landmark India-EFTA Trade and Economic Partnership Agreement (TEPA) and the India-UK Free Trade Agreement (FTA). He also held senior positions in the Government of India, including Joint Secretary (Strategic Management) in the National Intelligence Grid and Joint Secretary (Customs) in the Central Board of Indirect Taxes and Customs.

Suranjali Tandon is Assistant Professor at NIPFP where she leads the work on direct taxation and sustainable finance. She is currently a member of the T20 task force on "Refuelling Growth: Clean Energy and Green Transition". She has been a special invitee to the task force on sustainable finance, India set under the aegis of Ministry of Finance and is an expert invitee to International Financial Services Centre Authority's sub-committee on sustainable finance related to disclosures. She is an expert advisor to India Lab by Climate Policy Initiative and Ola Mobility Institute. She has worked in the past on many projects with the Department of Revenue and Department of Economic Affairs on key policy issues.

Anna Marhold is Assistant Professor at the Institute of Public Law and the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies at Leiden University. Her specialisation is international economic law, with a particular focus on international trade law at the intersection of energy and environmental regulation. In 2026, she was appointed 'EU Trade Champion' by the Directorate-General for Trade and Economic Security of the European Commission. The EU Trade Champion Network is an interdisciplinary group of selected international trade experts from the EU Member States. They are invited to interact on EU Trade and Economic Security policy with high-level policy makers at the European Commission, as well as within their own Member States.

Julien Chaisse is Professor and RGC Senior Research Fellow at City University of Hong Kong School of Law. His interdisciplinary research links international economic law, political theory, political economy, technology and dispute resolution. He is Editor in Chief of the Journal of World Investment & Trade. His research offers a unified account of how transnational governance is being reconfigured by digitalisation and strategic competition. Across trade, investment, arbitration and taxation, he examines how transnational norms define value and allocate it across jurisdictions when production, control and monetisation no longer align. For two decades, he has advised companies, governments and international organisations on treaty negotiations and domestic law reform in more than 30 jurisdictions. He has adjudicated more than 50 transnational disputes. He is a member of Hong Kong's Board of Review and is included on the European Union's List of Candidates Suitable for Appointment as Arbitrators.

Hanna P. Bucher is Senior Public Sector Specialist (Trade and Industry) in the Public Sector Management and Governance Sector Office (PSMG) of the Asian Development Bank. In this function she is leading trade and industry related programs in Bhutan and Indonesia. Previously, she worked for the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ) in various functions in Germany and in India. She also has 10 years of experience working for the International Trade Centre (UN / WTO) in Ethiopia and Switzerland, advising governments and businesses in Asia and Africa on topics of south-south trade, investment and regional integration.

Anita Prakash is the Founder of Research Lab Asia, where she leads solutions-oriented research on inclusive trade, infrastructure, supply chains and emerging regional production networks. Her current work includes the India–Middle East–Europe Economic Corridor and critical-minerals supply chains. Her expertise spans trade and global value chains, regional connectivity, inclusive trade, economic infrastructure, Indo-Pacific economic architecture, the digital economy and critical-minerals supply chains. Her regional experience covers India, ASEAN, East Asia, Oceania, Africa, Europe and the wider Global South. Previously, she served as a Director in the Government of India's Department of Commerce and NITI Aayog, and as a Director for Policy Research at the Economic Research Institute for ASEAN and East Asia (ERIA), in Jakarta. She has also contributed to G20, G7, ASEM and Asia-Africa Growth Corridor initiatives. Prakash studied at the Australian National University in 2002–2003 for MBA and holds an M.Phil in Political Science from University of Delhi.

Kehinde Folake Olaoye Assistant Professor Hamad Bin Khalifa University College of Law. Before joining HBKU, she was a postdoctoral researcher and lecturer at the School of Law, City University of Hong Kong. Kehinde obtained degrees in law from the Chinese University of Hong Kong, King's College London, and the University of Ibadan. She is qualified to practice law in Nigeria and has worked as an international arbitration and dispute resolution trainee in the Hong Kong office of an international law firm and as a commercial lawyer in Lagos, Nigeria.

Ovidiu Mic Head of Unit, (Unit C2 – South and South-East Asia) DG for International Partnerships, European Commission. More than eighteen years of experience at European Commission, mostly in 'third country' missions. Current focus is on advancing collaboration and fostering investments across South and South East ASIA. His expertise supports the European Commission's mission to enhance regional partnerships and promote sustainable development.

Mattea Cordier Advisor on trade policy at the Deutsche Gesellschaft für Internationale Zusammenarbeit (GIZ). Her main area of expertise lies at the intersection of EU trade policy and sustainable development. In this context, she focuses particularly on sustainability aspects in the EU's trade agreements. Since 2025, she is also responsible for implementing a trade facilitation project in Cameroon with the Global Alliance for Trade Facilitation. Mattea Cordier holds a master's degree in international relations from the Dresden University of Technology.

Georgios (George) Dimitropoulos Professor of Law and Associate Dean for Academic Affairs at the College of Law, Hamad Bin Khalifa University (HBKU), as well as an Adjunct Professor at Georgetown University in Qatar (GU-Q). His research focuses on redefining the boundaries of domestic and international law, with particular emphasis on economic sovereignty and the impact of digital technologies on traditional legal models. Dr. Dimitropoulos is currently the Lead Principal Investigator of the Industrial Policy for Digital Development (IPDD) Project, funded by the Qatar National Research Fund (QNRF). He is also a Chairholder of the World Trade Organization Chairs Programme (WCP). He serves on the editorial boards of the Journal of World Investment & Trade and the Asia Pacific Law Review and is Co-Chair of the International Law and Technology Interest Group of the American Society of International Law (ASIL).

Vincent Beyer is a Legal Affairs Officer in the International Investment Agreements Section at UN Trade and Development (UNCTAD). In his current capacity, he advises Governments on the modernization of international investment agreements, supports international consensus-building, and leads UN research projects and publications. Dr. Beyer regularly speaks at and organizes high-level international conferences, including the World Investment Forum. He has led technical assistance and capacity-building missions to more than 20 countries and has trained and supported policymakers from over 70 countries. He regularly represents UNCTAD in a variety of international settings.

Jason Rudall Associate Professor of Public International Law at Leiden University. In addition to his teaching and publications, he is the co-leader of the major Dutch government research grant-funded project H2OLAW: Law–Science Interfaces within the Law of the Sea and Fresh Water Law. Beyond academia, Dr Rudall has worked with international organisations, NGOs and law firms, and has been involved in several investor–state arbitration proceedings. His work on compensation in international law has been cited by the UN International Law Commission.

Richard Stern is Director of the Global Tax Policy Center, Institute for Austrian and International Tax Law at Wirtschaftsuniversität, Wien. The Center conducts policy-relevant research for the academic community, governments, and business. He has worked advising governments on taxation issues for 25 years including leading EY's Tax Administration and Reform Services. Before EY, Richard was Lead Tax Specialist for the World Bank Group's Global Tax Team, as well as running the World Bank Group's International tax and Tax Transparency Initiative from 2009-2017. He was an economist at the International Monetary Fund for 8 years, working monetary and fiscal issues. He has taught at the Tax and Law Faculty, at WU since 2013.

Sam van der Vlugt Assistant Professor Erasmus University of Rotterdam. He is an expert in tax questions related to sovereignty, fundamental rights, rule of law, and democracy. He obtained a joint-PhD from the university of Antwerp and the university of Salerno (cum laude) and holds LL.M's in tax law (EUR) and European Union law (UvA).

San Bilal Executive director of the European Centre for Development Policy Management (ECDPM). His work focuses on geopolitics, international relations, development & climate finance, sustainable investment, economic diplomacy, economic recovery and transformation dynamics (notably in Africa and the Ukraine reconstruction), the European financial institutions and tools for external investments and the Global Gateway, trade and development, sustainable global value chains, private sector and industrialisation dynamics.

Sandeep Bhattacharya focuses on domestic tax policy initiatives and managing the Secretariat of ADB's Asia Pacific Tax Hub. Dr. Bhattacharya has over 25 years of experience in tax policy and administration, consulting, and academia. Prior to joining ADB, he taught classes in taxation, public economics, statistics, and econometrics, as well as supervised student research at Duke University. He has a PhD in economics from Georgia State University and has degrees from Duke University (Master of Public Policy); Delhi School of Economics (Master of Arts in Economics); and St. Stephen's College, Delhi University (Bachelor of Arts with honors in economics).

Irma Mosquera Valderrama Full Professor Chair Tax Governance at Leiden Law School (Leiden University), the Netherlands, and Lead Researcher of the European Research Council ERC Funded Project GLOBTAXGOV. She is also the EU holder of the Jean Monnet Chair on EU Tax Governance (EUTAXGOV). She received her PhD (cum laude) in 2007 in the Netherlands. She was also a Fulbright Scholar (PhD research) at New York University, and the University of Florida (Gainesville), the United States. She has been a visiting professor at WU Wien University and Sorbonne University. She was also a member of the Reference Group (Policy & Operations Evaluation Department (IOB) Dutch Ministry of Foreign Affairs) evaluating the Dutch government policies and activities to strengthen tax systems in developing countries in the period 2012-2019. From 2022-2023, she was an external expert working on the UNDP Tax for SDGs Initiative-developing a course on Tax for SDGs. She is a member of the editorial board of several international journals including the Journal of World Investment and Trade.